Miss Octavia Hill's system for model dwell ing houses in great cities, was the subject of a lecture at the Society for the Improvement of the Dwellings of the Lower Classes in Ber lin. Dr. Aschrott, one of the most earnest workers of this Society, went to England to study the question there, and could not speak also, and always, CURES PAIN of in too warin terms of praise of Miss Octavia the Cramp and Colic family-HIII's system. Dr. Aschrott deliverd a lecture explaining the working of the scheme, with Pain of the Cough and Cold famthe result that a number of ladies declared themselves ready to act as agents for the six houses which belong to the Society.

Among the Wheelmen, The Mercury Wheelmen is the latest addition to the Litzabeth clubs.

The Elizabeth wheelmen will build an extension to their club-house and put in two bowing alleys. vants in Copenhagen, which counts the King | George M. Herdee, the ex-champion amateur and Queen of Denmark among Us continu-

Ten new members were elected at the last meeting of the Gotham Wheelmen, and the Secretary is in receipt of eight more to be acted upon. The coveted 160 will very shortly be reached. The Gotham Wheelmen, of this city, are to be congratulated on the new club-house they propose to occupy. No expense will be apared in remodeling and fitting up the interior, and the result will be one of the landsomest house for wheelmen in this city. The Chap is composed of some of the best element obtainable.

The Gotham Wheelmen have a club cry that is toth odd and unique. It is composed of sizes and rahe, which can be heard a half mile off. It is rumored that Mr. F. D. Clearman, one of the New Jerseys' crack riders, has find his application for uon-resident membership in the Gotham Wheel-men, and will in the future ride under their colors. Beveral members of the Gotham Wheelmen rod-to Philadelphia last Sunday. They report the roads being in very bad condition.

The Gotham Wheelmen are seriously considering the project of either building or hiring a track for the benefit of the racing men. Mr. William H. Lord, Treasurer of the Gotham Wheelmen, has invented a cyclometer for racing men which connects with the handle bars of the machine.

The Gotham Wheelmen will have a racing team who will be able to compete with any club in America next season. Mr. J. Frankin Forrester, President of th Gotham Wheelmen, will sojourn at Newport, R. I. for a couple of weeks in August. He has been hard worker in the interest of the Club, and will ne doubt profit by his well merited reat. The postponement of the second day's racing

The Racing Board of the League of American Wheelmen is again complete. Abbett Bassett, of Boston, resigned his position on the Board, leaving two vacancies to fill. Freshint Duin has appointed George O. Street, of Chicago, and W. H. De Gran, of New York City. It is a wise move to appoint a New York man on the Committee for two reasons—first, because at least one member of this Board first, because at least one member of this Board. first because at least one member of this Board should be near the President, and, second, locatase it will materially strengthen Mr. Dunn's position in the East. It will add him to have piently of friends at the meeting to be held in Harriord Sept. O. The Racing Board has anspended for thirty days W. Pullock and W. Curtis, of Philadelphia, and amateurs are cautioned against competing against them.
